
SUPPORT OF LOCAL AND COMMUNITY ACTION PROGRAMS AND COMMUNITY SERVICE PROGRAMS

[41 CFR 60-2.13(l) and 2.26]
Effective: January 1, 2009

The University supports community action and community service programs that are designed to improve and increase employment opportunities for minorities and women. University administrators and members of the faculty serve on a number of local and national advisory boards. A current listing of such programs and organizations in which University persons have key roles is included in Appendix VII.